Temple Menorah Preparing for Holy Day Rites

The most solemn holy days of the Jewish faith, Rosh Hashonah (New Year) and Yom Kippur (Day of Atonement) occur this year on Thursday, Sept. 22 and Saturday, Oct. 1. The faithful Jews of Temple Menorah of the South Bay will meet at the Mormon Stake, 2000 W. 174th, Torrance, for worship, on Wednesday night, Sept. 21, at 8:30 p.m. for the evening services which introduce the High Holy Days. This year is 5721, according to the Jewish calendar, dating back to the traditional date of the creation of the world.

MORNING services for Rosh Hashonah will commence at 10:30, Thursday, Sept. 22, at the Mormon Stake, with the children's services scheduled for 2:30 p.m. Special children's devotions have been prepared for this service.

Rabbi Henri E. Front, spiritual leader of Temple Menorah of the South Bay, 112 N. Catalina Ave., Redondo Beach, will conduct the special liturgy for the holidays. Persons interested in joining in worship should contact the Temple, Frontier 9-5983 and Frontier 4-9208.

ASSISTING IN the ritual will be Cantor Harry Newman, chanting the musical portions of the service, joined by the Temple Menorah Choir under the direction of Fay Newman. Student-Rabbi Harvey Block, studying for the rabbinate in Los Angeles at the Hebrew Union College, a branch of the world's oldest and largest Jewish seminary, will aid in the reading of the prayers, according to George L. Lewison, president of the Temple.

Of all the Jewish Holy Days, Rosh Hashonah and Yom Kippur are among the few that do not center about some event in the history of the Jews; their concern is rather with the individual. For it is the profound logic of Rosh Hashonah that the Jewish year is to begin by perfecting each individual Jew through bringing him into his intimate communion with God.

THE TALMUD records the ancient Jewish idea that on Rosh Hashonah three account books are opened, wherein the various types of men are recorded; the righteous, the wicked and the intermediate. The righteous are thereupon inscribed "for life", and the wicked for destruction. But the intermediate, who are wholly wicked, are given the 10 intervening days until the Day of Atonement to repent and become righteous.

A special prayer, added to the ordinary devotions, characterizes the services of Rosh Hashonah and Yom Kippur. It is a prayer expressive, not of hopes of the people, nor the ideals of humanity, but of the hunger of the individual—the simple prayer for life itself: "Remember us unto life, O King who delightest in life, and inscribe us in the book of life, for Thy sake, O God of Life."

Parents May Still Join Local Class

Prospective parents who were not able to attend the opening session of the new Expectant Parents' Classes at the Torrance Health Center, 2300 W. Carson, are welcome to register at any of the remaining classes held Thursday afternoons at 1 p.m.

This is the invitation extended by Dr. B. A. Kogan, Torrance District Health Officer, under whose direction this educational service of the County Health Department is conducted.

The next class is scheduled for the afternoon of Sept. 22 and the topic of discussion will be the health of the prospective mother. The following week, Sept. 29, labor and delivery will be discussed. The films "Labor and Child Birth" and "Normal Birth" will be shown.

There are no registration fees for these educational programs. For additional information, call the County Health Department, Torrance Health Officer, FA 8-3310.
